Miss Emeline LeGrand Thornhill

Emeline LeGrand Thornhill, 85 of 2428 Rivermont Ave. died at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Virginia Baptist Hospital after a long illness.

Born in Appomattox, July 1, 1878, she was the daughter of Jesse Steven and Sarah LeGrand Thornhill.

She was educated in the Appomattox and Lynchburg Schools after which she taught in Appomattox for awhile.

She became a social service worker and was for several years employed in the Ninth District in Greenwood, S. C., and other southern communities.

During World War I, she went to Washington to accept a government position.

In 1926 she returned to Lynchburg and became executive secretary of the Lynchburg Chapter of the American Red Cross from which she resigned in 1933.

She was a charter member of the Lynchburg Historical Society and a long-time member of the Huguenot Society.

Her hobby was genealogy, and she secured valuable historical information for the Historical Society, the Huguenots and for individuals.

She is survived by two nephews and a number of cousins in Lynchburg and in Appomattox.

Funeral services will take place Thursday morning at 11 in Rivermont Avenue Baptist Church. Burial will be in Spring Hill Cemetery.

FHA Exhibits At Fair

Future Homemakers enrolled at Appomattox High School put much energy and creativeness into this year's Five County Fair. Bakery products, flowers, canned goods, clothing, and other items were taken. In addition, the local FHA chapter decorated a booth, 'Make Virginia Homes Beautiful.' Included were a miniature boys' room, 'Shipshape' and a girl's room, 'Frilly For a Girl's Room.'

In the Dress Revue were Faye Dickerson, Jeanne Chuchek, Ann DePew, Dolores Wooten, Carsonette Garrette, Jane Williams, Merlyn Martin, Carolyn Coleman, Margaret Moore, Clara Braford Sarah Braford, Cynthia Richardson, Barbara Goin, and Barbara Thomas.

Exhibiting in one or more classes were Carolyn Coleman, Merlyn Martin, Barbara Staples, Barbara Thomas, Jane Richardson, Cynthia Richardson, Lois Morris, Dale Reynolds, Marietta Drinkard, Carolyn Nash, Rose Evans, Faye Arrington, Barbara Goin Barbara Gaines, Kathy Flynn, and Delores Reynolds.

IN MEMORIAM

MARTIN —In sad but loving memory of my dear husband, Fleming Martin, who passed away Sept. 13, 1961.
It's been two long years since you left me.
I miss you more each day.
The ache in my heart and the pain of grief,
Are more than words can say.
You left a beautiful memory and Sorrow too great to be told
But to me who loved and lost you,
Your memory will never grow old. Mary. 9-12-1p

EDWARDS: In memoriam of my husband, Willie Edwards, who passed away one year ago, Sept. 1, 1962.
The shock that I received that day,
I still remember well.
You never had a word to say,
You bade no one farewell.
God got to good to leave to bear it
And courage to face the blow.
But what it meant to lose you
God only will ever know.
When evening shadows are falling
And I am sitting all alone in my heart.
There comes a longing if you were only home.
Some may think you are forgotten
But you always were efore.
His Wife, Nancy. 9-12-1t

All Clubs Of County Asked To Aid CWC

The Civil War Centennial Committee headed by W. C. Hubbard is making plans to request executive officers of each club to meet with each club and organization in the county.

Hubbard said that Mrs. Otho W. Martin, secretary, is planning to write a letter to each group asking for the name of a club member to serve as liaison between the Civil War Centennial committee and organization. Thus, he said, all activities with regard to the Centennial can be coordinated for a successful commemoration of the Peace made at Appomattox.
